

FACT SHEET: Human & Sex Trafficking

13 Facts That Could Save Your Life

Male, female, old, young, Black, White, Asian, Hispanic, Indian - any of you can be a target for sex trafficking.

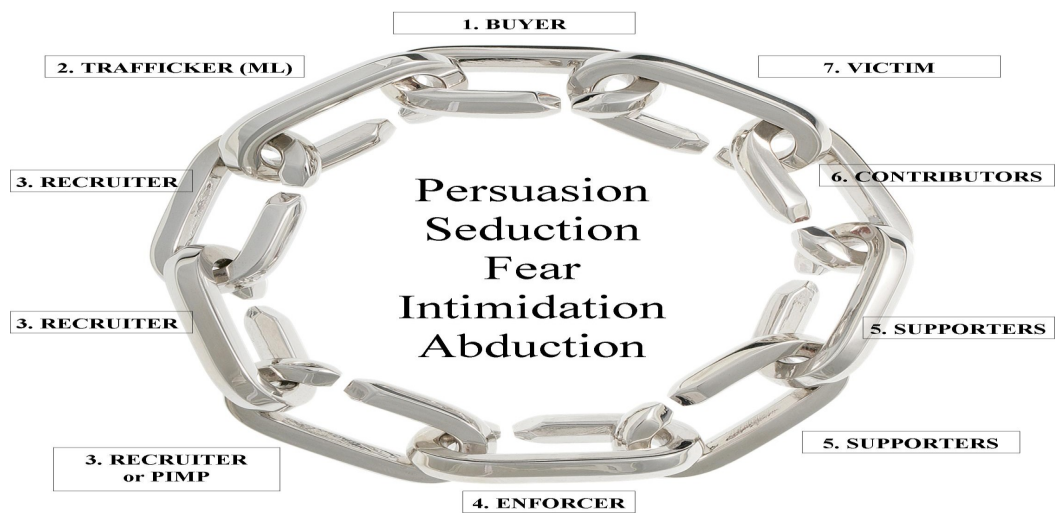

Visit www.publicsafety411.com for our entire Special Report on Sex Trafficking!

1. Human Trafficking and Sex Trafficking are not always the same thing.
2. Boys, girls, women, family, boyfriends & girlfriends are used as Decoys.
3. The STFC is organized, aggressive, consistent and motivated.
4. Sometimes Recruiters set up and use fake rescue & empowerment groups.
5. Recruiters use social media and video games like Roblox, posing as youth.
6. Stereotypes of perpetrators as all older or men make you very vulnerable.
7. After sex trafficking awareness month, many organizations will quiet down.
8. Recruiters are also young people or friends in school or church and paid well.
9. There are not enough local police to protect you so learn to protect yourself.
10. The entire food chain lives in every type of neighborhood in America.
11. People from every facet of the community are involved in sex trafficking.
12. As much as 18% of traffickers are WOMEN, not men. (UN Data)
13. Pimps and sex traffickers are not the same and they operate differently.

The Metro Atlanta Crime Commission offers the most advanced, comprehensive, defensive and strategic sex trafficking prevention training program in Georgia for disrupting the Sex Trafficking Food Chain at every level simultaneously and making you safer.

Sex Trafficking Disruption Disrupting The 7-Part Sex Trafficking Food Chain (STFC) A Metro-Atlanta Crime Commission Analysis

VOLUNTEER THROUGH OUR WEBSITE, HOST A SEMINAR OR ATTEND OUR ADVANCED CRIME PREVENTION TRAINING PROGRAMS
The Metro-Atlanta Crime Commission www.publicsafety411.com